

Comprehensive Foreign Language Courses at Safir Language Academy

We offer a variety of foreign language courses for learners at all levels, tailored to meet your individual goals. Our courses in French, German, Russian, and Turkish provide structured lessons that focus on building fluency in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Whether you're learning a language for travel, work, or personal development, Safir has the perfect programme to help you achieve your linguistic goals.

French Language Courses

Our French language courses, based on the Tendances series, are designed to take you through all levels, from A1 (beginner) to C2 (proficiency). Whether you're learning in a group or through private lessons, we place a strong emphasis on both conversational skills and grammar, enabling you to communicate confidently in various real-world contexts. Our French courses also provide cultural insights, ensuring you fully grasp both the language and the culture.

Private and Semi-Private German, Russian, and Turkish Courses

In addition to French, we offer German, Russian, and Turkish courses in private and semi-private formats. These tailored courses give you the advantage of a more personalised learning experience, with flexible scheduling and focused attention from our experienced instructors. Whether you need the language for business, academic purposes, or travel, our courses are structured to ensure rapid and effective progress. The individual or small group setting allows learners to progress at their own pace, ensuring you meet your specific learning goals.

Flexible Learning Options

We understand that your schedule is unique, which is why we offer flexible learning options. You can choose from regular weekly classes or more intensive sessions, depending on your availability. Our private and semi-private formats ensure that you receive the personalised attention you need, whether you're learning individually or in a small group. Our flexible approach allows you to balance language learning with your other commitments, ensuring a seamless and convenient experience.
